Jersey City, New Jersey 07302

Dear Rimli,

I am writing to you to join your efforts and the entire South Asian community to celebrate Diwali and to acknowledge your work for the Jersey City arts community through Surati for Performing Arts and Education.

Diwali, the festival of lights, is a very special holiday which symbolizes the virtues of inclusiveness and tolerance as well as knowledge and places good over evil and hope over despair.

This is a time for a new beginning, to cherish with family, friends and other loved ones. It is a time to come together and to light candles and lamps and create new memories together.

On behalf of the entire city of Jersey City, I want to express our best wishes and may the new year bring joy and happiness!

Sincerely,
